

SYMBIOSIS LAW SCHOOL, NOIDA | MOOT COURT SOCIETY
NASCENT MOOT COURT COMPETITION, 2015

RULES & REGULATIONS

INTRODUCTION:

Moot court society of Symbiosis Law School, NOIDA (hereinafter MCS-SLSN) announces its annual edition of NASCENT Moot Court Competition session 2014-15 (hereinafter NMCC) for the season 2015-16 for the selection (internal elimination round) of pleaders and researchers to its Contingent-VIII (hereinafter C-VIII) for representing Symbiosis Law School, NOIDA in the External Moot Court Competitions (hereinafter EMCC) during the academic year 2015-2016.

This is fifth year of continuous mooting at SLS-NOIDA. Way ahead, we are only looking for devoted candidates who are committed to the serious business of mooting for the next five academic years at SLSN. It may be understood from the ideology that we are selecting only 18 members (or less as may seem fit) for the C-VIII.

Ideology: Aspirants see themselves in;

- Ability to manage internal, external examinations alongside mooting.
- Ability to manage their health and deliver work within time.
- Ability to deliver individually and manage team work, (if there will be lapses in the commissioning of work, first time – express warning, second time – express termination).
- Ability to perform without complaints and blame-games.
- Ability to maintain total academic discipline and professional culture.

SCHEDULE:

Herein 'NMCC' problem, applicable rules and schedule are attached herewith.
