

ABOUT THE AUTHOR
 Author of this book, Dr. Madhuker S., is Assistant Professor of Law at Symbiosis Law School, NOIDA. After completing his Graduation in B.A. (Hons.) English, LLB and LL.M, he did his Doctorate in Law from Faculty of Law, University of Delhi where area of the research was Rights of Girl Child in India. He has authored two books (i) Perspectives on Rights of Girl Child in India (ii) Juvenile Delinquency: Hitz & Pleaser of Cut-off Age Prescription. He had worked upon a 'Research Project' sponsored by Symbiosis Law School, NOIDA (A Constituent of Symbiosis International University, Pune), and titled as 'Efficacy of Increased Age Prescription for Male Juvenile under Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of Children) Act, 2000'. Before joining the academic fraternity, he had served Govt. of India.

ABOUT THE BOOK
 This Book, titled as 'A Short Commentary on Right to Information Act, 2005' - (Judicial Perspective on 'Right to Information'), is about the 'scope' and 'nature' of meaning of 'right to information' within the statute. But, it goes beyond the scope of 'statute', when it traces history of 'freedom of information' starting from eighteenth century; how it took shape of a 'right'; how the Indian Judiciary contributed in development of 'nature of right to information' as one of 'fundamental right'. Interpretation of relevant statutory provision is discussed with the help of 'illustration'. If further discusses how the Central Information Commission, with its decisions, has contributed in success story of the Act.

Gogia Law Agency
 (Law Bookellers and Publishers)
 110/112, Old Market, Hyderabad - 500 002
 110/112, Old Market, Hyderabad - 500 002
 110/112, Old Market, Hyderabad - 500 002
 110/112, Old Market, Hyderabad - 500 002

A Handbook on Right to Information Act, 2005
 Dr. Madhuker S.

A Handbook on Right to Information Act, 2005
 (Judicial Perspective on Right to Information)

Gogia Law Agency
 HYDERABAD

